Placard wishes to announce another milestone.

In addition to the recent certification by Visa for Placard to initialise, customise and embed smartcard chips, we wish to advise all our valued clients that MasterCard, after conducting their own extensive audit, have also advised that they too have given us their approval to conduct these processes.

That means Placard is now EMV certified by both MasterCard and Visa.

Should you wish to obtain further information in regard to this announcement please do not hesitate to contact your Relationship Manager, or visit our web site to obtain the details of your nearest Placard office.

Yours sincerely
